THE GOVERNOR
WANTS UNIFORMITY
IN REPORTS

FAVOR HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS COVERING SAME PERIODS IN THEIR LEGISLATIVE REPORTS.

Governor Carter will call a conference of the heads of departments for the purpose of agreeing upon a uniform method of reporting to the legislature. Under the law the heads of department make an annual report to the Governor and a biennial report to the legislature. Formerly the fiscal year in the Territory ended December 31. But the United States fiscal year ends June 30, so in order to conform with that system, the Territorial fiscal year was changed to correspond with the Federal year.

But in the preparation of their reports to the legislature the heads of departments have never observed any regular system. Some have reported for a year, some have reported for eighteen months. Governor Carter is considering the advisability of suggesting that they report to cover the same period in order that there will be no confusion on the part of legislators when they desire to compare the work of the various departments with preceding periods. The legislature will probably be asked to change the laws in this regard.

CHINESE WIFE
WANTS DIVORCE

SHE SAYS SHE WAS MARRIED IN THE 24TH YEAR OF KWONG
SUEY'S REIGN.

Dai Fook Tai wants a divorce from Lai Kwai Sau. She filed her libel this morning. The claims that they were married at Waipio Ewa on "the twelfth day of the seventh month of the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Kwong Suey" which she understands corresponds to August 27, 1898. In any event Lau did not treat her kindly, she claims, for during the year of 1904 up to December 9, he was very cruel in the extreme. She left him on that date.
Three children are the result of the marriage but the woman asks for a divorce and not for the custody of the children.

TWO BLACK EYES
FOR NOT EATING

WOMAN SAYS SHE WAS BEATEN
BECAUSE SHE HAD NO APPE-TITE FOR CHRISTMAS FARE.

With both eyes closed and a bruise across her nose, one crack with a stick having effected the ugly and painful result, Numela Kakalla was led tottering into the police station this morning by her husband and a young girl relative to swear to a complaint against John Kanaka and Mary Rodrigues for assault and battery.

The right eye of the woman was completely closed and much swollen, while the companion optic seemed to be temporarily sightless through sympathy or paralysis.

Numela stated that on Christmas Day, her immediate family being absent from her home in Kalihihaka, she was invited by neighbors to go to their house to partake of a little holiday refreshment. She did not want to go preferring to sleep, but being very much urged she went and before her was placed a plate of chicken and a glass of whiskey. She partook of the chicken sparingly and of the whiskey still more modestly and went home, but the generosity of her entertainers did not seem to be satisfied and she was later dragged out of her own bed at home and across the street to the neighbors where it was urged that she proceed to fill herself with things to eat and more particularly with things to drink. She says she did not want to do this and that her unwillingness in this regard resulted in her being called very unholly names and that, finally, the woman named in the complaint struck her across the face with a stick and then the man took a hand.

CAMPBELL FILES
PEACOCK DEMURRER

TREASURER SETS FORTH PRAC-TICALLY THE SAME GROUNDS THAT OTHER DEFENDANTS DID.

Territorial Treasurer Campbell filed his demurrer this afternoon to the suit for damages brought against him by W. C. Peacock some days ago because of the arrest of Peacock on a charge of selling adulterated liquor.
Peacock was discharged in the district court on Monday.

The demurrer by Campbell sets forth practically the same grounds as did those filed in behalf of Sheriff A. M.
Brown, County Attorney Douthitt and County Detective Lake who were made co-defendants in the suit against Campbell.

CHRISTMAS DRUNKS.
